Bellefonte Republican.

WEDNESDAY MORNING Oct. 13, '69.

To Irishmen

"Art thou in health, my brother?" was the question asked by the Joab of old, as he thrust his weapon of death to the heart of his unsuspecting victim. Could anything be more like this than the conduct of the Free Trade aristocrats, seeking under the lead of Asa Packer, to Pauperize every Irish laborer in this Commonwealth? The dagger of Joab is in the hands of Mr. Packer and right royally will he use it, if elected, to cut asunder the bands of protection Republicans have woven for the defense and prosperity of our Irish citizens. The great question between Labor and Capital is big with interest to every Irish citizen. The question of protection to American Industry, versus Free Trade, is agitating this Commonwealth as never before. The election, to a greater degree than ever before, hinges upon it. Upon the one side we have an avowed monopolist, and the greatest disciple of Free Trade the Commonwealth affords.

In John W. Geary we have a tried defender of the Workingmen's Rights and Protection to Labor.

The great Republican party has repeatedly shown itself the friend of Labor, as in its Eight Hour law, and the leaning of Workingmen should be towards its friend.

It should be potent to every citizen of this country that the surest road to making its liberties secure, is to make it entirely independent of other States not only politically, but industrially.—To achieve this, it is necessary to be able to supply our markets with articles, manufactured by ourselves, from the raw material which our country produces either agriculturally or in minerals. How, we ask, can we do this with an energetic Free Trader in the Executive chair who is anxious to place our manufactories upon a competing level with the factories of England. Protection is the huge oceandam that stands between our workmen and the pauper wages of English slaves. Let Mr. Packer be inaugurated, and Free Trade proclaimed, and the pauper-paid work of England, flooding our markets, will strike down our workmen's wages to starvation point; will bring swift bankruptcy upon our manufactories, and then, when the Sheriff closes the factory door, and starvation is actually before him, the Irish workman will realize the beauties of Free Trade. Once break down the embankment, and American capitalists and American workmen will flounder through the floods of beggary until they are both engulfed in the waters of ruin. English manufactures will then supplant our own. English serfs will compete with American and Irish laborers. How do our Irish workmen like the picture? Every vote to Free Trade, is a vote to England. Every vote to England, is a vote against Ireland, and against America. Above all let him remember that it is a vote against himself.

Let the Irishmen of Centre county, while helping themselves, their fatherland and their adopted country, help to strangle England through her commerce.

To do this, vote for JOHN W. GEARY FOR GOVERNOR.

Remember This

Aside from his avowed and well an thenticated opposition to the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek R. R., we have another grave charge to prefer against Jacob J. Moyer.

He is known by those who having sounded him upon the subject, to be an out-an out, uncompromising enemy of the of Centre county!!

He is in no way interested, and in case of his election would doubtless be a willing tool in the hands of the lobby opponents of the lumbering interests of our county. This statement is entitled to the earnest consideration of every lumberman in the county.

James P. Coburn, being heavily interested in timber land, would protect the valuable interest of those engaged in lumbering, whether capitalists or workmen.

Scratch Moyer on that.

REMEMBER,

taxpayers of Centre, that Jos. McClenkey is the tool and pimp of the Court House Ring. Remember that he was nominated by the Ring, simply because he was not fit to fill the office, and that, by reason of said unfitness, he would be compelled to rely upon the Ring for advise and counsel, and would, therefore, be left to their mercy—the supple, and, no doubt, willing tool of dishonest treacherous and corrupt men—the material out of which the Court House Ring is composed.

If Simon S. Wolf's friends in Miles tp. won't trust him, how can he ask strangers to do so?

That Twitchell Humbug.

The Watchman clan, goaded to desperation by the crushing "settler" it received at the hands of Geary and the Democratic officials having Twitchell in charge at the time the Watchman junto assert he was spirited away, return to the charge, and in a three-column article of specious sophistry, attempt to explain away some of the tremendous thumps the foul bantling has received at the hands of Democratic journals within the past few weeks.—It is a labored article in demonstration of what the Watchman Editors and the Watchman's readers jointly consider a lean joke long drawn out. It was due the readers of the Watchman that some additional defense should be offered. It was a bold game, admitting of no bungling inventor, or hesitating falsifier. In no other locality between the poles, with which man has been made cognizant, could so rotten an egg have been laid, hatched and eaten, than where it most properly saw the light of print. Peter Munchausen and Joseph Pepper were the lousy crows alternately suckling and covering the offal bird. They first fondled and clouted it, little dreaming that Democratic pins, under such a pressure, were liable to break away, and let highly seasoned destruction down upon their addled craniums. The Twitchell canard was emphatically a "bad egg."—Its concoction was unnecessary, and its rehearsals are nauseating. Lay the vile bantling away, carefully labelled, "Midwife Meeks Marionette"—puppet.

Republicans Remember

The Republicans should remember that in some respects the coming election is one of peculiar importance, and every vote should be polled. For instance, in 1871 the Legislature will have devolved upon itself the duty of apportioning Pennsylvania both for Congressional and Legislative representation. Both of these apportionments have not fallen on the same year since 1801, and will not fall on the same year again until 1941. This shows the importance of having a Republican Governor, when these apportionments take place, so that, in no event, there may be an unfair apportionment of this State. Republicans of Centre county, do your duty, by voting for Geary and an honest apportionment of the State.

WHAT is the price of coal? Ask the dealer, and then prove, if you can, that it is as low as it should be at this season of the year. Who is to blame, the miner, the retail dealer, or the monopolist? The monopolist has been in fault in all other such outrages, and surely must be in this. Asa Packer is one of the heaviest coal-mine owners in Pennsylvania, or in the United States! With other monopolists, he has aided in forcing the market up, and will not supply coal at fair prices. This campaign has cost him "something nice," and he will be bled still more. Who will have to pay this in the end? Why, the "poor men," who burn his coal, paying therefor more than fair rates. They who use the monopolist's coal will pay Packer's election expenses. And Democratic tricksters claim the laboring men will nearly all vote for him!

Remember,

when black men were emancipated, and the Democrats exclaimed, "Don't do that; white men won't live with them." When it was proposed to make soldiers of them, Democracy cried out, "They are cowards; white men won't fight with them." Now when the intention is expressed to give them the franchise, that party protests that "White men will not vote with them." These are large-minded arguments—great and noble reasons.

Yet, such as they are, they have been answered most forcibly by the very persons who propounded them. Nobody but ruffian Kuklux refuse to live with them on terms of amity.—It turned out that Democrats were glad to have them enter the army as their substitutes. Wherever the black man has suffrage the Democrat is eager to avail himself of his companionship and does not consider it any condescension to ask him for his vote. Oh the consistency of this guttapercha Democracy.

J. B. Butts.

Jere Butts is well known to the people of Centre county. He is a clever man in every sense of the word. He is abundantly qualified to fill the office of Sheriff. If elected he will not run all over the county telling his business—telling the names of those against whom he has warrants, who he is selling out, and who will be the next man to fail in business. A Sheriff should keep his business to himself. This, Daniel W. Woodring does not do. If he is about to sell a man out; or if he is going to arrest any one, in short, no matter what his business is, everybody knows it about as soon as Woodring himself. This conduct the people condemn in Woodring, and will therefore vote for Jere Butts.

Slingsback.

Twenty millions always degrades workingmen.

Twenty million builds houses for traitors, and makes his laborers pay for them.

Twenty million wants the mechanic's labor sixteen hours a day, and compete with English prices.

Twenty million got rich off the men he expects his shrewdness in time gone by, will admit of his buying.

Twenty million's built a royal mansion near his (?) University for a neice of his friend, the rebel Jeff. Davis.

Twenty million wont be elected Governor by the toiling men of Pennsylvania, and we will bet $20,000,000 on it.

Twenty millions, by his vote, said a Catholic was incompetent to hold office and administer the laws of the government.

Twenty millions and the Centre county buckwheater say all farmers are fools, and can be bought with Democratic "stamps."

Twenty million has plenty of whiskey on his side board for rebels, and plenty of cold victuals for the poor man—at $1 extra per ton.

Twenty million says a Catholic is not endowed with native sense to distinguish between $2 00, American, and 18 pence per diem, English.

Twenty million is now pasturing Col. Davis, brother of the political Jefferson, at his royal mansion, in Mauch Chunk. How's that, Lincoln hirelings?"

Twenty million Packer flitted from Mauch Chunk to Philadelphia to sneak out of paying his justly assessed National, State, county and borough taxes!

Twenty million once bolted the regular Democratic nomination, because the nominee was a Catholic, at the same time voting for a Know-Nothing candidate.

Twenty Million Packer says the "Lincoln hirelings" did not take his advice during the war, and he don't expect they will now. You're right, old $20,000,000.

Twenty million's organs say old $20,000,000 lives in the Sixth Ward, Philadelphia, but they announce him "For Governor, Asa Packer ($20,000,000) of Carbon county.

Twenty million wants to tear down all safeguards Republicans have erected for the poor man, and make the hard-fisted laborers compete with under paid workmen of England.

Twenty million being able to buy his nomination for Governor, would be able to buy a Legislature, if necessary, to assist him in his railroad schemes to grind the faces of the poor.

Twenty million is not a native of Pennsylvania, but the New York candidate. His interests are all with the New York capitalists against the interests of Pennsylvania.

Twenty million is opposed to the "Eight Hour law." Let mechanics and laboring men remember that, and not trust him. His professions are delusive—he is a snake in the grass.

Twenty millions' ducking in the Lehigh by workmen he swindled out of decent day's wages, didn't cleanse the party. That garment will be soused and pronounced "nix cum rouse," Oct. 12th.

Twenty million has never been able to stomach a workingman since a lot of them threw his king-ship into the Lehigh canal, in 1842, for attempting to force them into his service at starvation prices.

Twenty million foots the bill while rebels dance, and the poor men of the Commonwealth foot $20,000,000's bills for the campaign. They will "foot" $20,000 000 in some other locality on the 12th of October.

Twenty million's nomination put 37 cents extra on each ton of coal. The "extra" goes to defray the expenses of the democratic campaign, and must come out of the laboring man's pocket. Stick a pin there, workingmen.

Twenty million thinks he can corrupt the voters of Centre county. He first buys his nomination—then advances the price of coal $2 per ton, and then sends the "extra" he has made off the poor man into the country to buy the laboring man's vote!

Twenty million says the Eight Hour Law should not be enforced. Let laboring men remember that Packer declined to give a direct answer to the question "Are you in favor of the Eight Hour Law? That law was passed by a Republican Congress, and enforced in all the National work-shops in the United States by President Grant. Will the hard-fisted voters of Centre county cast a vote for a man thus committed to Free Trade, low prices and poverty.

Twenty million's and his friends would beggar individuals and the State through Free Trade. Under Republican rule the increased internal revenue receipts from tobacco during the fiscal year, ending June 30, 1869, (mostly under Grant,) amounted to $4,082,000. And the increased receipts from internal revenue during the present quarter over the corresponding period of last year is estimated at ten millions of dollars, or at the rate of forty millions per annum. Don't mark that!

ADVERTISING.—The BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN has a larger circulation than any other Republican paper published in the county. Our merchants and business men will please make a note of this.

For the last time preceding the Election, we appeal to Republicans and indepenent democrats to do their duty on Tuesday the 12th, as the needs of the county require of them. Let no trick of the enemy at the polls, escape your attention. Challenge all "repeaters" and doubtful voters, remembering that one vote may defeat us, Do your duty fearlessly and fully, and all will be well. The signs are propitious, and we will win.

Trust Him Not.

We cannot understand how, or in what manner Jacob G. Moyer can be acceptable to the Democracy on any issue or interest upon which he has expressed his views. His expressed opinions, aside from his example, prove him a mercenary opponent of the best interest of Pennsvalley as involved in the building of the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek R. R.—He has, at last accounts, refused to subscribe one farthing to the enterprise although more deeply interested than nine-tenths of the poorer residents along the line. He will not subscribe one penny until after the election, and only then a miserable pittance; and, if even that, which we greatly doubt it will be under protest.

Unquestionably Mr. Moyer is committed to a programme which, if successful, will forever defeat a railroad enterprise through Pennsvalley.

If he wont give a cent for the enterprise now, in the time of its direst need, when, we ask in all earnestness, can he be expected to do so?

Let no man be deceived as to Mr. Moyer's views and designs in this Railroad matter.

If Mr. Moyer favors the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek Railroad, as some of his organs and unthinking partizans contend, why did he use his influence with Mr. Wolf, Chairman of the Potter tp., Railroad Committee, to defeat the subscription of stock in that township?

We have before said that Mr. Moyer was heavily interested in Potter tp. real estate, while it was a matter of not the least consequence to Mr. Wolf.

James P. Coburn has done more for the building of the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek Railroad than any other man in Pennsvalley, or Centre county.

Choose ye between these men, railroadists of Pennsvalley.

Model Moyer, alias Meyer, once sold a gentleman in Pennsvalley a melodeon for an amount exceeding $100. Some weeks after payment had been received, Moyer ascertained that he had figured himself out of 18 cents. He immediately hitched up his horse—rode eight miles—stated the circumstances—got his change, and returned home.

Eighteen cents! More than a cent a mile. The purchaser had boarded model Moyer little less than three weeks, free gratis, and that fact makes the 18 cents due Moyer on the Melodeon "dicker" worth 16 miles travel to recover—about as the old woman kept hotel 16 miles below Camden, Jersey. If the reader don't know how that was, call on us.

The Eight Hour Law.

Workingmen should not forget that a Republican Legislature last Session passed, and General Geary signed a law, fixing eight hours as a legal day's work. The object of the law is to give the workingmen at least two hours each day to attend to their own private matters at home. To the poor man who has his little garden to work, his fire-wood to chop, and the dozen other little matters to attend to, these two hours amount to something, and the passage of the law goes to show that the party of the People is careful of the comfort and convenience of the laboring men.

An Independent Democrat.

The Packer Clique.

All we Have said about the Court House Ring, and Democratic Corruption Corroborated.

Democrats, Read Before You Vote.

We have time and again charged the leaders of the Democratic party with corruption and dishonesty. We knew whereof we affirmed, and was satisfied in our own mind that thousands of honest men in the Democratic party were beginning to see that what we stated was the truth.

We now present to our readers strong Democratic testimony, which corroborates all we have ever said of these leaders. It is from the Altoona Vindicator, a bold and fearless Democratic paper, edited by Mr. James F. Campbell.

While he refers to the State corruptionists of his own party, we assert that he could not have described our Court House Ring better, or more fully, if he had written with that special object in view. But read the extract from the Vindicator of Saturday, the 2nd inst:

It is a fact which we desire to impress upon our readers, that a faction has taken control of the Democratic organization and the present campaign. * * * * Some of them are corrupt and designing, and seek Democratic success only as a stepping-stone to plunder and the filling of their own pockets at the expense of the honest, hardworking taxpayers of the Commonwealth. They have attained the control of the party by the meanest of intrigues, by which was ostracised the only man who has carried Pennsylvania for the Democratic party since 1862. Need we say that man was the Hon. Wm. A. Wallace?

The convention succeeded in getting into the field a candidate for Governor who, honest in his impulses, seems to be controlled by a corrupt clique, who are known to be trading politicians of a very low degree.

We ourselves had a voice in the convention which placed Mr. Packer in nomination, and contributed in no mean degree to that result, believing at that time that our present nominee was the most available as well as the strongest man in the State. But from our knowledge and observation of the workings of the miserable clique that controls Mr. Packer and the committee, we are free to say we believe we made a mistake in the convention.

Mr. Packer, with his immense wealth, looks on with perfect amazement, while some of the men who flatter and swarm around him are filching away his substance, to enrich themselves and defray the expenses of their continuous debaucheries. Let Mr P. see to it!

Mr. Packer conceives that in answering the demands of these leeches he is contributing to the cause of the Democratic party, and to his own personal advancement. Unless some bold man tears the bandage from his eyes and compels the change of his confidential advisers, the 12th day October will tell a tale of disaster and ruin to the Democracy. Of the $75,000 already contributed, scarcely $10,000 is being applied to the ends for which the contribution was assigned—the balance is being drawn out; amongst whom?

We do not desire to be misunderstood; we will support Packer and Pershing. We swallow the whole as a sick man swallows a nasty medicine. * * * * But if the Democracy wish to elect either, the fools and thieves who have the custody of both must be driven from the front of their battle."

Wherefore, Thomas Pepper.

Recently, that lie-enamored, lie-begetting, libelling liar; treason spewing, falsehood brewing and offal exuding demonstrator of all that's infamous, outlawed and infernal—the Bellefonte Watchman, attempted to cast odium upon and beslime our worthy candidate for Recorder, Dan. H. Rote. To bolster and substantiate a charge that Mr. Rote got out of a wagon at Pleasant Gap, several years ago, and hobbled up to the yard of Mr. Jno. Sweeney, and attempted to shoot a daughter of that gentleman, the Watchman produces a letter from Mr. Sweeney. We have no words with Mr. Sweeney or his daughter. Miss S. saw fit to divest herself of that modest and lady-like demeanor observed by true ladies, and needlessly, wantonly and contemptibly insulted a peaceable bevy of gentlemen returning home from this city. She had an undoubted right to act as her teachings and desires suggested.

Mr. Sweeney's name appears to a communication published in the Watchman, stating as fact what we emphatically deny. We now assert that Mr. Sweeney did not sign that letter, or authorize the libellers of the High St. guerilla to do so. The name of J. G. Larimer is also appended as a witness. We assert that Mr. Larimer was not present, and could, therefore, no more testify of the truth of Mr. Sweeney's statement than could the High Street falsifier miss a lie. No wonder Miss Sweeney refused to make a statement in writing to substantiate the Watchman's assertion. But it did not deter the Watchman from putting its foul words in her mouth as personal utterances. The Watchman belies Mr. Sweeney, and injures not its intended victim, the gallant and competent Daniel H. Rote.

Woodring can pray to God every night to forgive him for fighting to save the Union. Stick a pin there, you inanly soldiers who glory in your past record.

Too Late.

The Centre Hall Reporter, also the Democratic Watchman published in their last issue, letters purporting to have been written by Henry Meyer, and Philip Meyer, brothers of Jacob G. Meyer.

We write the whole thing a base fabrication, concocted by the "little Dutch villain," and glibely swallowed by the gullible, tory MEEK.

We made those charges against J. G. Meyer, some six weeks ago, and have repeated them in some shape in every succeeding number. Now, at the eleventh hour, on the eve of the election, when they thought contradiction impossible, the brothers of J. G. discover the falsehood, and come to the relief of their aristocratic and oily brother.

We repeat our charges against Jacob G. Meyer, and re assert that the statement, as published by his brothers, is an oily lie—an oilier fabrication in support of the oiliest, longest, slimest, shallowest nonentity on the Democratic ticket.

VOTER, DON'T FORGET.—That John W Geary has proved himself a gallant soldier as well as a good Governor!

That on the 28th of June, he was mustered into the service as a Colonel and successfully fought those who attempted to destroy the Union.

That on the 25th of April, 1862, he was promoted Brigadier General.

That on the 11th of January, 1865, he was promoted Major General.

That he was wounded at Bolivar, Cedar Mountain, and Chancelorsville.

That to this present day he carries rebel lead in his body!

That as
Mayor of San Francisco,
Governor of Kansas,
Military Governor of Savannah.
And finally, as Governor of Pennsylvania,
He has invariably discharged the duties imposed upon him with honor to himself and credit to his native State.

Cut the Ring Candidates!

THE proudest boast of our Democratic fellow citizens, is that Democracy is the same yesterday, to-day, and forever, in all places and under all circumstances. Such being the case, how about the following, unanimously adopted by the Democracy of Mercer county, Ohio, a few days since:

"Resolved, By the Democracy of Mercer county, in convention assembled, That we are in favor of the repudiation of the bonded debt of the United States."

Remember.

Let every lumberman in Centre county beware how they jeopardise their interests in voting for Jacob G. Moyer, What cares he for your interests? Just enough to be your out-and-out enemy, and the Watchman dare not deny it. Vote for James P. Coburn, the friend and defender of the vast lumber interests of Centre.

Scratch anti-Railroad Moyer.

KURTZ, the little Dutch villian of the Mountain Noserag, retracts his base and wicked libel upon Rash Cadwallader. It is well for Kraut he did. Now, Fred, swallow four of Ayers' pills, which you can obtain at F. P. Wilsons' Drugstore and work them off with about sixteen apple dumplings and you may yet become an honest man, instead of a low villian, and mean and contemtible liar.

Bolt the County Coffee Mill.

If S. S. Wolf's

own townspeople refuse to trust him, how under Heaven can he expect strangers to do so? Wolf never was a Lieutenant as anybody knows of, and we have never heard of any very remarkable army record that he won. For Treasurer we want an honest man and we have one in Rash Cadwallader.

Lay out the "Ring" Masters!

The Philadelphia Morning Post has let us into a secret. The grandest discovery of the age—Asa Packer's residence—has been made. M'Kibben has vouched for him—his domicile is the Merchants' Hotel, in Fourth street. He votes in Philadelphia.—At last the sly old fox has been holed, and it will not be long before the Republican huntsmen will take his brush.

Don't touch the county coffee-mill Woodring. He can't keep a secret, and whenever he goes into a town on business his first desire seems to be to tell everybody just what everybody ought not to know. Jerre Butts don't do business that way.—Vote for him and protect yourselves and property.

Remember,

One vote for Moyer may defeat the building of the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek Railroad. Citizens of Pennsvalley, Democrats and Republicans, untold interests are involved in the completion of that road. Don't hazzard your great interests by voting for Moyer.

Smash the Ring,

independent Democrats. You have it in your power to bury it out of sight. It is a good year for Ring burials.—John Moran is a prominent member of the Ring. Scratch him!

THE FAIR.

The Biggest Success of the Season.

WHAT WAS THERE, AND WHAT WASN'T.

Everything Noted.

Minus the watery space of the blanket sheets, we are compelled to put out our report of the second Annual Fair of the Centre County Agricultural Society, upon the present grounds, in concise and staccato directness.

Mention of the rare adaptation of the location to the purposes of a County Fair—the vast number of delighted spectators present—immunity from accidents, and all manner of "unpleasantnesses" enjoyed—courteousness and efficiency of Society officers, police and attendants, would be but useless repetition of what thousands saw and remarked scores of times during the continuance of the Fair. We will, therefore, commence at the beginning.

TUESDAY.

Nobly recovering from the dreary and forbidding prospects several preceding days combined to anger her fates, broke cool and hopeful. The glorious Winthrop once said an October's day was the nearest foretaste of the reward of the blest hereafter, vouchsafed to man below. Doubtless the October days in Winthrop's memory, embraced sunnier hours than but ours were "sufficient unto the day," and the desponding took hope.

"Kissed the sun to day,"

Early morn discovered several energetic exhibitors and sutlers heavily armed with hammers, nails, saws and various other implements of manufacture. These implements have stood in hand the day through, and the racket and din ceased as the sun went down. Gradually the grounds assumed a busier aspect, and the scattering vehicles of enterprising exhibitors trailed up the hill and deposited their loads, just as a myriad other wagons have done before them.—Attentive and "posted" officers busily and appropriately arranged all goods consigned to their care. By noon a small Fulton market full of vegetables, fruit and "nonsuches" amply justified the Vegetable Department in putting on airs, and proclaiming herself a demonstrable success, whatever disaster occurred to the other classes. Such peaches, pears, apples and golden grapes have not moistened our mouth—figuratively—and nerved our digits—needlessly—since before Fate booked us for a mortal career, and then we had such things. Of this Department, its contents and proud owners, another day or two will needs be ours before facts and figures can be given.

Floral Hall was early saddled and bridled by our young friend Jas. McClure who prominently displays fine handiwork of skilled workmen, at the West end of the Hall. At the East end, the artistic genius of young Nolan appears in pictured colors. The group of five sketches—two crayon and three oil paintings—will be appropriately "yours truly'd" in due time. Late in the day, the tasteful and elaborate handiwork of busy fingers hirsuted bipeds love to clasp, gradually filled the "void," and, with jellies, honey-combs, and other tasteful "appurtenances," the Floral Hall came near announcing itself as big a fact as the vegetable kingdom. To-morrow will leave no doubt of what this Department will be.

The Mechanical Department presents anything but that representative appearance so desirable at fairs, and so suggestive of the material prosperity of a county. Save the broad acres of waving grain and shocks of golden wheat, nothing so deeply, perfectly and truly represents the staple condition of a county as well as the Mechanical Department at a County Fair. Three reapers, one corn-sheller and seperator, a cornplanter and churn, embraces, save the Dexter Washing Machine, down by the creek, all the receipts in this Department to-day. But then, to-morrow, we trust, will show a better collection. Of those present, as well as those to come, our time will gladly be occupied by and by.

The Stock market ruled confoundedly low, the whole day through. The forenoon chronicled the arrival of one lone Durham bovine, the property of Mr Samuel Gilliland. She was joined in the afternoon by a yoke of 2975 lb. oxen, the property of Dr. Eliss W. Hale. The show of stock, numerically, can be little worse, and, poor as it is, it exceeds the exhibition in poultry. Two lone Cochin Chinas kept silent watch the whole day long, unmolested and unnoted by woman or child. Biddy looked as cheerful as the prospects invited, but it was plainly evident the "old boy" was heartily disgusted at his limited harem. Flap your wings, old chanticler, the morning will dawn brighter.

The track is in splendid condition, and it is a great pity there is not more of it. The usual variety of brutes that could, and couldn't go; drivers good, and those who never drove before—nor ought again; and vehicles, various, gave the track an animated look.

Several harmless short winded "spurts" between light weights, for beer and benzine, were presided over by the Champion of country anatomy and nothing.—Later, and a slight buzz announced the arrival of Lipton's speedy "Rose," driven by A. Mullen. A few leisure warming-up turns, and away went the nervy mare, rattling off her spaces beautifully. The light weights, abashed, retreated, just as a second interjection denoted the coming of Rikard's "Harry Clay." The terms were speedily arranged, and the magic "go" found the splendid beasts abreast, Harry inside. We dare not amplify here—it must suffice that "Harry's record, in the three heats, was 3:13, 3:09 and 3:10, "Rose" hard pressing. Opinions vary, and we hold our own. There is nothing so certain as the uncertainty of a horse race. Death was distanced in that direction long ago.

The sun smiled benignantly on the myriad policemen and departing figures of the pleased spectators. To morrow will, we confidently predict, see the "show" in full blast. Then we shall see what we shall see.

WEDNESDAY.

One of Winthrops poetical days. From "early morn 'till dewy eve," Nature laughed outright, showering down, unsolicited, her warmth of genial rays in wanton profusion.

So soon as seven, the class, fair-sustaining, sprinkled the highway and hill road to the receiving house "builded with hands" at $2 a day. The capacity of police, not less than space, was well taxed. The waiting and willing shelves, broad, inviting tables and seductive nooks, in Vegetable and Floral departments, were satisfied that nothing was created in vain. The hard fisted, enterprising yeoman deposited his overgrown cabbages, beets and mammoth corn, while his not less enterprising and ambitious spouse made equally liberal and far handsomer contributions to the Hall Floral. This latter Department, to-day, bid glad Vale, Vale to her skeptical attendants of yesterday, and with the assistance, and in the presence of beauty, health and genuine rejoicing, proclaimed her sovereignty, and assumed her royal crown, labelled SUCCESS. We will let the Vegetable and Floral domains rest for the day, content that no poaching hand can lessen their value, or steal their deserving thunder ere our special and enumerative pencil chronicles their double success.

The Mechanical Department was sensibly—not very—augmented, but of the additions and whole, we refrain until to-morrow.

The entries in the stock books were favorable, yet lack in number and kind. It is strange, unaccountably strange, that these half'd zen stalls are not occupied by some of the thousand fatted and comely animals to be seen on a day's drive through the county. It is wrong, unpatriotic and reprehensible. Of this idea, the stock and certain other animals we add, "to be continued."

The daily programme were duly announced, and did not lack for interested spectators. The hillside and sidehills were well dotted with the various kinds of the human race, mostly men, women and children. First came the advertised trot of double teams for the $30 premium. Rikard entered his favorites, "Harry Clay" and "Lew Petit"—Lee, his gallant steeds, "Jersey Bill" and "Tommy Star." The warming up process indicated a very closely contested trial. First heat, both teams came up in good order, and went off splendidly at the word go, Rikard inside. Harry and Lew took the lead, and not for a moment seemed disposed to yield the advance.—Nor did they break during the first heat, maintaining, with steady pertinacity, their speed and lead. Tom and Bill—especially the latter—for who didn't sympathise with him?—stretched out bravely to recover a sad gap made, as we believe, causelessly. Dr. we rap your knuckles slightly as possible, but we don't blame the horses for letting their opponents pass the pole at 3:27 4 5.

Second heat. Both teams well in hand. Bill and Tom indicating a "level best" go. "Lew Petit" "raised," and Lee inexorable, hardened his heart, stiffened the reins, and kept on the even tenor of his way and would win at 3:35 1-5.

The third heat saw Rikard over the pole at 3:30 1-5, Lee doing a rushing business just too late. The fourth "go" resulted like the third, and Petit and Clay took the pole at 3:23 2-5, thus giving their enterprising and delighted possessor the premium. Our sympathies were on the other side—our stamps in our pocket.

The Gentleman's Driving horses came up sandwitched between the trot of the double teams. Richard Conly entered his black gelding, "Packer;" Augustus Krom, sorrel gelding, "Dick Turpin;" A. S. Valentine, dark bay horse, "Billy;" J. K. Thomas, bay mare, "Lady;" Geo. A Lose, brown mare, "Jenny;" D. Valentine, bay horse, "Prince," and P. Benner Wilson, the celebrated "Dot."—We cannot extend our report of this exciting contest, and, therefore, announce Lose's "Jenny" winner of three heats, time: 3:35 2-5, 3:37 and 3:37 2-5. Krom's sorrel took the second premium.

With the announcing of these premiums, a general effort was made by all interested, to leave the grounds, and the attempt proved very successful, and quiet reigned supreme over the ampitheatre and grand hillside.

THURSDAY.

The anticipation and predictions of the sanguine were well verified by the attendance of a "large multitude." Floral Hall was dressed out superbly, and, to begin somewhere, we enumerate among the articles and exhibitors the following:

J. H. McClure, three horn spring Ladys' side saddles, mans' saddle, light single harness and collars. This work was excellent throughout, not less in style than durability. E. Graham & Son, case of Lady's boots and shoes, very tasty and neat. P. McCaffry & Co., case of Misses' shoes, mens' gaiters and kip boots—all well made and durable.—Jno. Powers, pair boots, substantial.—Isaac Knup, nice dressed deer skin.—Mrs. H. W McAllister, a beautiful Afghan. Loeb, May & Loeb, beaver overcoat, Chesterfield frock coat, good. A. Sternberg, three well made suits clothing. Mrs. R. B Wilson, homespun pair of sheets, and pair pillow cases. Miss Catharine McClintock, piece of flannel, good. Mrs. H. W. McAllister, rug carpet, 3 ply, hemp chain, very good; silk quilt, neat, and pretty Japanese napkins. Miss. Annie Jack, pretty sofa cushion. May Harkimer, two chair tidies, fine. Sarah B McAllister, slippers, on canvass; wish we had them on our pedals. Lydia Sourbeck, neat pair slippers. Nannie J. Alexander, wool and cotton tidies, very nice. Nannie Milliken, a beautiful Afghan. Miss. Lulu Meek, 7 years old, an extremely artistic Floral Ornament, described as a "Farmer's Wreath." Miss. Sallie Thomas, pretty pair of slippers. Miss Annie Thompson, beautiful sofa tidy. R. A. Kinsloe, very pretty zephyr shawl. Mrs. H L Pifer, extremely neat child's afghan. Miss. Nannie J. Dare, little girl, a neat pin cushion. Miss Phœbe McKean, coverlet over 100 years old, having descended into the hands of a great grandchild; very good, indeed; also pretty watch case and toilet cushion. Miss. Millie Humes, tasty tidy. Miss. Marion Petriken, pin cushion. Miss. Priscilla Stuart, neat footstool. Miss. Annie W. Harris, beautiful sofa pillow, and tasty cake napkin. Sarah D. Stover, neat tidy. Miss Carrie E. Sayre exhibited several unusually artistic oil paintings which deserve a much lengthier notice than our space permits. They indicated a far more than ordinary type of genius. Miss. Emma Bolinger, two sofa tidies, and Miss. Catharine Derstine, collar and shirt bosom made by hand—well done and tasty. Mrs. M.K. Tripple, pretty tidy. Miss. Alice Gilliland, zepyr cap. [Owing to that most vexatious of happenings—pieing a form—the REPUBLICAN goes out this week as a half sheet. We protested, argued and plead—perhaps did something else—but the types were inexorable, and wouldn't get back into shape. As a consequence, our elaborate report of the Fair we most regretfully continue until next week, when it will appear in full text, with exceptions, notes, and notes to exceptions. Those wishing extra copies will please order early. Numbers of the REPUBLICAN of October 20th, the complete report of the Fair, and a vast amount of other—Local, Editorial and select reading—can be had in wrappers ready for mailing.]

For superior Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, and, in fact, everything in his line go to Pat. McAffrey's celebrated Boot & Shoe Store, Bellefonte, Pa. Pat. has just received an unusually large stock of goods from which all the inhabitants of Bellefonte can be supplied. Faith, and Pat. can do it.

THE Aaronsburg Lodge, I. O. of G. T., will give their first annual entertainment on the evening of Oct. 19th, in the Aaronsburg Academy. All friends of the cause are kindly invited to attend.
